

Mark your calendars!

Series begins May 14 • Attend one or attend all!

How can I Afford Retirement™ Investor Education in Your Community

A free, non-commercial Investor Education Series for individuals thinking about retirement or recently retired

TOPICS

Taking the Mystery Out of Retirement Planning

Thursday, May 14
6–8:30 pm

Closing the Gap: Investment and Expense
Strategies — Even for Late Starters!

Thursday, May 28
6–8:30 pm

Investing Wisely to Avoid the Financial Risk of Longer Life Expectancy

Thursday, June 4
6–8:30 pm

Protecting Your Investments — The Best
Defense is a Wise and Safe Investor

Thursday, June 11
6–8:30 pm

Using Your DC Public Library and the Internet for Investor Education

Tuesday, June 16
6–8:00 pm

This session only to be held at the Martin Luther King branch of the DC Public Library.

Sessions 1-4 will be held at Howard University School of Law, Moot Court Room, 2900 Van Ness Street NW, Washington, DC 20008. Session 5 will be held at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Library, 901 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.

This series is part of the national Investor Education in Your Community program.
Registration is requested as space is limited. For more information and to register:

www.affordretirement-dc.org • 202.290.2184

This series, an Investor Education in Your Community program, is made possible by a grant from the Investor Protection Trust • www.investorprotection.org

